Announcement Title *	Jardine Cycle & Carriage Announces Appointment of New Group Managing Director
Description	Jardine Cycle &amp; Carriage wishes to announce that Benjamin William Keswick has been appointed as Group Managing Director of the Company with effect from 1st April 2007. He succeeds Adam Keswick, who is to take up other appointments in the Jardine Matheson Group. Ben Keswick is currently the chief executive officer of Jardine Pacific, which represents a number of the Jardine Matheson group's non-listed interests in Asia encompassing a range of industry sectors that include air cargo handling, aviation services, building and construction, engineering, restaurants, and IT products and services. He joined the Jardine Matheson group in 1998, working first for its retail arm, Dairy Farm, before completing an MBA at INSEAD in Singapore. He moved to Jardine Pacific as finance director in 2003 and became chief executive officer in 2005. In addition to his role as Group Managing Director of the Company based in Singapore, Ben Keswick will have broader Jardine Matheson group responsibilities in Southeast Asia and will remain a director of Jardine Matheson Limited. Chairman of Jardine Cycle &amp; Carriage, Anthony Nightingale, said, "During Adam's tenure, first as Group Strategy Director and then as Group Managing Director, he has been instrumental in refocusing the Group's operations on our core motor activities in Southeast Asia and building our relationship with Astra International. I would like to thank him for his significant contribution to the Group as he returns to Hong Kong to become chief executive of Jardine Motors Group and Jardine Pacific. I would also like to welcome Ben Keswick." Jardine Cycle &amp; Carriage has a shareholding of just over 50% in Astra International, a leading listed Indonesian conglomerate, and also holds directly motor vehicle retail and distribution interests in Singapore, Malaysia and Indonesia. The Company is listed on the Singapore Exchange and, together with its subsidiaries and associates, employs some 110,000 people. Jardine Cycle &amp; Carriage is a member of the Jardine Matheson Group.
