Attachment to SGX Announcement
dated 10th July 2019

Jardine Cycle & Carriage Announces Appointment of New Group Managing Director

10th July 2019 – Jardine Cycle & Carriage Limited (“JC&C” or “the Company”) today announced that on 30th September 2019, Mr Alex Newbigging will be stepping down from his role as Group Managing Director after over seven years in this role.

With effect from 1st October 2019, Mr Newbigging will be the Chief Executive Officer of Jardine International Motors Limited (“JIM”) and based in Hong Kong. JIM is a management company established by Jardines in May 2019 to provide unified strategy and leadership to Jardines’ automotive interests in Greater China and Southeast Asia. Mr Newbigging will also assume responsibility for Jardine Strategic’s investment in Zhongsheng Group, an automotive dealership group representing a diversified portfolio of marques across China.

Mr Newbigging will be succeeded by Mr Benjamin Birks.

Mr Birks was most recently the Chief Executive Officer of Zung Fu, having held the role since 2016, and in recent months JIM. He was previously the CEO of Jardine Pacific and IKEA Hong Kong, the General Manager of Zung Fu Macau and Executive Assistant to Jardine Matheson’s previous Managing Director, Mr Anthony Nightingale. Mr Birks joined Jardines in 2000.

Further details of Mr Birks’ appointment can be found in the SGXNet Template Announcement on “Appointment of Director and Group Managing Director”.

JC&C’s Chairman, Mr Benjamin Keswick commented, “On behalf of the Board, I would like to thank Alex for his leadership and valuable contributions to JC&C. I would also like to welcome Ben and wish him success in his new role in leading JC&C.”
